

ABOUT THE COMMUNITY

The Lakeview Local School District is located in Northeastern Ohio, in Trumbull County and is serviced by the Trumbull County Educational Service Center. It is a suburban community with a population of about 12,700. The school district encompasses more than twenty-eight square miles. The socio-economic stature of the community is higher than the state average at about $63,493. Residential and commercial growth within the School District has been strong in recent years. Total assessed value has increased by thirteen percent in the past five years while student enrollment is down approximately six percent for the same period. Ohio Edison, Sears Holding Corp, and Walmart are the major industries and/or businesses in the district. Business and industry provide about 20% of the local school revenue.

The City of Cortland has a number of historic structures and sites that date back to 1820. These historic sites include; private homes, churches, the Christian Church Cemetery, the Old Mill, and one of the more recently restored historic buildings, the Opera House. The city is also known for the many unique specialty shops that add to the uniqueness of the area.

The Mosquito Reservoir is located in Bazetta Township. The scenic and beautiful Mosquito Lake runs through the center of the district, as does the Mosquito Lake State Park, which adorns the lake. Mosquito Lake provides boating, fishing and water recreation for water enthusiasts from miles around.
