About Southern Local School District

One of five local school districts in Columbiana County, the Southern Local School District is located in the southwestern portion of the County. It is a rural school district covering approximately 110 square miles. The campus serves preschool through 12th grade with expanded academic and extracurricular offerings to prepare students for a successful future. The school district has added a state of the art athletic complex on a sprawling 48 acre lot.

The Southern Local Board of Education supports a learning community that embraces collaboration and communication to design educational opportunities for all students. Students, staff, parents and the community will together provide a safe, secure and accepting environment that offers a student-centered curriculum.
