- Puts students and their learning needs first
- Proven ability to set high expectations for him/herself as well as administration and staff while maintaining accountability
- Articulate communication and strong interpersonal skills with all stakeholders
- Integrity, high moral standards, and a strong work ethic
- The ability to form and maintain strong relationships based on mutual respect and trust
- High level of commitment and investment in the community

About the District

One of six districts in Mercer County, the Parkway Local School District is in the northern portion of the county. It is a rural district covering approximately 160 square miles, including the villages of Rockford, Mendon, and Willshire. Farming and agriculturally related businesses dominate the district's economy. Parkway PK-12 students are educated in one building, a 240,000-square foot facility that was constructed in 2005.
